

Historic Jefferson Center

A restoration and adaptive reuse of the former Lafayette Jefferson High School (circa 1910) into 74 safe and affordable apartments for the elderly and 11,000 square feet of space for the New Community Charter School.

Rink Savoy

Located in the Heart of Indianapolis, the historic building contains 60 one- and two-bedroom apartments ranging from 552 to 1,070 square feet, all of which are affordable to low and moderate income residents, at 60 percent or below the state's median income.

Central School Senior Apartments

A result of the historic restoration and adaptive re-use of the former school building together with the construction of a new 16,000-square-foot annex, Central School Senior Apartments now offers 35 safe, affordable residences for seniors together with common areas for the enjoyment and convenience of the residents as well as space for resident services, programs.